Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management of the Scandinavia AS, together with its subsidiaries (the Company), is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. The Company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed under the supervision of the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of published financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted internationally.

As of December 31, 2018, management conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and has determined that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2018. The Company's internal control over financial reporting includes policies and procedures that pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect transactions and dispositions of assets; provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with international accounting principles generally accepted in Norway, and that receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and the directors of the Company; and provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the Company's financial statements. Management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2018 has been audited by Deloitte AS, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report appearing on the following page, which expresses unqualified opinions on management's assessment and on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2018.
